

INVESTICE DO ROZVOJE VZDĚLÁVÁNÍ

Mag. Tatiana Stadler

Vienna University of economics and business Institute for Slavic Languages Welthandelsplatz 1, Building D2 1020 Vienna, Austria

Mag. Tatiana Stadler is a Russian teacher in the Institute for Slavic Languages of Vienna University of economics and business. She was born in Russia, graduated from the Faculty of History at the Udmurtian States University in Russia and from the Institute for translation and interpretation studies at Vienna University (Russian, German, French).

Mag. Tatiana Stadler has worked as a Russian teacher and translator for many organisations, since the year 2000 she has been involved in Russian language teaching, translation and interpretation at the Vienna University of economics and business, since 2012 she has been a senior lecturer for Russian in the Institute for Slavic Languages.

At the Vienna University of economics and business she is responsible for the Russian teachers'staff, e-learning and the use of information technology in Russian language teaching. She teaches "Business communication (Level 1-3)" courses, courses for beginners in Russian and grammar courses for intermediate learners.

Mag. Tatiana Stadler is co-author of a number of textbooks – "Kak skasat?" (How to say it?), "A kak eto u was?" (And what about you?"), "Learning Russian by acting plays", "To watch and to understand Russians movies" and others.